

Research-based open conference

Hosted by First Year Undergraduate Students

May 14-28, 2019

Attendees will have an opportunity to listen to both qualitative and quantitative analysis of recent UN general assembly addresses (2014-2018) delivered by the leaders of the countries in (direct or indirect) conflict such as Turkey, Iran, the Russian Federation, Egypt, Ukraine, the Baltic States, the UK, Pakistan, India, China, the U.S. etc. The speakers will mainly focus on the political meaning of violence categories, persuasiveness levels and foreign policy scenarios.

We look forward to see you there!

Conference Programme

May 14 / ROOM 303

- 9.45 – Kotryna Verbylaitė Political Conflict in Diplomatic Discourse: a case of Sergey Lavrov's UN speech (2018)
10.15 – Diana Uckutė Political Performance in Diplomatic Discourse: a case of Dalia Grybauskaitė's UN speeches
10.45 – Gabija Kavaliauskaitė The Metaphorical Language and Cases of Political Violence in Donald Trump's UN Address
11.30 – Ineta Aleknavičiūtė Metaphorical Conflict Between Law and Violence in Andrzej Duda's UN Speech
12.00 – Gabrielė Galinytė Nations as Persons in Diplomatic Discourse: A Case of Dalia Grybauskaitė
12.30 – Vitalijus Čikotas Petro Poroshenko's Framing of Ukraine in the UN speech (2018)
13.00 – Evita Anilionytė Nations As Persons in Donald Trump's UN General Assembly Address of 2018
-

May 16 / ROOM 305

- 8.45 – Justina Puvačiauskaitė Identity Construction in Péter Szijjártó's UN Speech
9.15 – Ieva Jacevičiūtė Levels of Political Violence in Nicolas Maduro's UN General Assembly Address (2015)
9.45 – Vytas Kereišis The Crisis of Multilateralism: The German Perspective (2018)
10.15 – Evald Bogdanovič Collective Identity in Emmanuel Macron's UN speech
11.00 – Ūla Staigytė Identity and Ideology in Political Conflict: a case of Kersti Keljula's UN Speech (2018)
11.30 – Žygimantas Šilobritas Turkey As an Agent of Justice and Peace in President Erdogan's speech
12.00 – Rugilė Vaiškūnaitė Qualitative Study of President Moon Jae In's UN Address
-

May 21 / ROOM 303

- 9.45 – Dovydas Šablinskas Theresa May's Features of Diplomatic Discourse in the UN speech (2018)
10.15 – Simona Petrulytė Identity construction and Targeting in Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's UN speech
10.45 – Tomas Žigutis A Case Study of Diplomacy and Political Violence in Benjamin Netanyahu's 2018 UN speech
11.30 – Kotryna Kupčinskaitė Principles of Multilateralism: A Case of Ireland in Simon Coveney's Speech
12.00 – Emilija Barsevičiūtė Political Violence and Conflict in PM Benjamin Netanyahu's speech
12.30 – Linas Macius Conflict Scenarios in Shinzo Abe's UN address
-

May 23 / ROOM 305

- 8.45 – Ignas Dobrovolskis Conflict Representation in President Putin's 2015 UN Speech
9.15 – Kotryna Jankūnaitė Conflict in Diplomatic Discourse: A case Study of Petro Poroshenko's 2015 UN Address
9.45 – Dovydas Kairys Diplomacy and Conflict: a case of China
10.15 – Milda Martinkutė Political Image of the United States in Nicolas Maduro's Speech: UN General Assembly (2018)
11.00 – Povilas Reinotas Metaphor and Identity in Conflict Scenarios: a case study of President Poroshenko speech (2018)
11.30 – Ugnė Misevičiūtė Political Violence Towards the U.S. in Hasan Rouhani's speech
12.00 – Aistė Mažeikaitė Construction of Identity and Values in Heiko Maas's UN Address
-

May 28 / ROOM 303

- 9.45 – Lukas Virvilas Donald Trump's UN speech of 2018: Conflict Identity and Framing
10.15 – Paulius Perminas A Case of Political Violence and Conflict in PM Sushma Swaraj's UN speech
10.45 – Miglė Neverdauskaitė Identity Construction and Targeting in Makhdoom Shah Mahmood Qureshi's Speech
11.30 – Valentas Buivydas Contemporary Challenges at Keeping World in Peace in the Era of Globalization: a case of Theresa May 12.00 – Tadas Stanislovas Šliuoža Reality and Myth in the 1960s: A Case of Fidel Castro's First UN Speech
12.30 – Kipras Chlebinskas Identity Constructs in President Nicolás Maduro's UN speech of 2018